

GOVERNANCE, RISK AND COMPLIANCE

Corporate Law and Governance

5 day course

Classroom, online or in-house

Course overview

This course covers the legal framework within which a company is governed. Delegates work through company formation and constitution, directors' duties and the standard of care expected, shareholder rights and remedies, capital and distribution rules, and the reporting and disclosure obligations that follow from incorporation. Director liability receives detailed treatment, including the circumstances in which the corporate veil is pierced and directors are held personally responsible. The framework is South African company law, with attention to the corresponding provisions in other African jurisdictions where a group operates across borders.

What you will learn

- Describe company formation, constitution and the effect of the memorandum
- Apply directors' duties and the standard of care expected of them
- Identify shareholder rights and the remedies available to minorities
- Explain capital maintenance, distributions and the solvency and liquidity test
- Meet statutory reporting and disclosure obligations
- Assess director liability and the circumstances of personal exposure
- Recognise the equivalent provisions in other African jurisdictions
